

Protection is never under lockdown.

Care and Maintenance tips

Machines under long shutdown require additional care upon startup. Here are some tips to ensure your machines and your business picks up right from where it left off.

• BEARINGS •

Inspect grease lines and nipples for dust accumulation and grease hardening

Re-grease all bearings and purge grease lines and grease points

Start up slow with low load if possible

Monitor temperature and vibrations after startup

For more details, email us at indialubeline@exxonmobil.com